Hi Susan, how are you? I am taking over for Linda on the FMC project. I heard from the contractor today that you were hoping to get an update on what he has been working on.

Sorry I ran out of time today to reach out to you with a phone call. I am working from home today and I didn't see your phone number in the email that was forwarded to me and couldn't put my finger on it with a little poking through files.

I am still very new and coming up to speed with quite a lot, so I do not have a lot to share with you yet, but I was hoping that we could connect anyway.

Do you have a time tomorrow that would be good, to give you a call? What number should I try to reach you at?

Thanks Susan, I look forward to getting to know you and Kelly better.
